

Join us to celebrate

Professor Varpu Lindström

and her many contributions to women's history, the history of migration, Finnish studies, as Master of Atkinson College, the Chair of the School of Women's Studies, the Chair of the School of Social Work, and in so many other areas of study and administration at York University.

The Centre for Feminist Research has initiated a series of events to celebrate the contributions that feminist scholars who are close to retirement have made to feminist studies and to York University. The School of Women's Studies, the Centre for Feminist Research, the History Department, and the Graduate History Program cordially invite you to afternoon tea and a reception honouring Varpu Lindström.
