

Race, Racism and Empire: The Local and The Global Panel Schedule
Subject to change. Please use Landscape setting to print this schedule out.

Friday, April 30th, 10:45 a.m.

Panel	Title and Papers	Speakers
A1	Racial Profiling The Role of Narrative in the Contestation over Racial Profiling Law enforcement and racial profiling	Frances Henry and Carol Tator Charles C. Smith
A2	R.A.C.E. Academics Contesting Empire in a Post 9/11 Era Unassimilable Muslims and civilized white people: A critical race response Contesting empire: A case for anti-racist feminist Challenges in post-secondary education in India and responses to the economic imperatives of the new world order	Sherene Razack Sunera Thobani Vanaja Dhruvarajan
A3	Racialized Faculty in the Academy Whatsoever things are true: Resistance and counter-resistance in the academy Enactments of colonization on minority faculty: What can be done? Who controls Canadian universities ethno-racial origin of Canadian university administration and faculty? The letter: The meaning of "Leave or Perish"	Agnes Calliste and Carla Baillie June Yee and Cindy Baskin M.R. Nakhaie Luis Aguiar, Patricia Tomic, Ricardo Trumper
A4	Colonialism, Aboriginality and Rights Lasa Pulans, Where the Devil Plays: Race and Property Rights in the Rio Platano Biosphere Reserve Rhetorics and the Colour of Resistance in Colonial Photography with First Nations'	Sharlene Mollet Kalli Paakspuu
A5	The Making of Hegemonic Ideology The promise of English: Linguistic imperialism on the world stage and in the N.A. ESL classroom Alternative ways of imagining a global feminist and human rights discourse	Kulsoom Anwer Archana Mary Mathew
A6	Racialization and Identity Displaying the myth of multiculturalism in Europe: Building Jewish museums No Artificial Ingredients: Race and nation in Costa Rica's tourism web site Hip Hop histories in Cape Town: Race and racialization in the age of globalization	Robin Ostow Megan Rivers-Moore Remi Warner

Friday, April 30th, 1:30 p.m.

Panel	Title and Papers	Speakers
B1	Centering our Spirituality in the Academy: A Transformative Anti-racist Project in the Local and the Global Spirit, spiritual, spirituality and the divine in the academy: Repositioning the self Evoking spirituality in the academy as anti-racist pedagogical practice The severed spirit: Advancing a holistic approach to learning	Njoki Wane Riyad Shahjahan Anne Wagner
B2	Anti-Racism Theory in Practise Anti-Racism praxis and the racialized politics of “Practical Consciousness” Races, globalization and cultural diversity training in the corporate sector Transformative principles for racial justice (TPRJ), changing work and study environments An integral journey towards inclusion	Ernest Khalema Alana Butler Rebecca Hagey and Jane Turriffin Margot Hovey
B3	Who Qualifies: Race and Professions Two advocacy groups, the association of international physicians and policy roundtable Racism in nursing in Ontario: Results of nurses regarding experience of racism at work Resisting lean caring: Race, gender and social service work Constructing otherness	Uzma Shakir, Joan Atlin, Jane Cullingworth Tania DasGupta Donna Baines Najja Nwofia Modibo
B4	Immigration: Race and Rights Women asylum seekers and UK health and social care policy: The empire brought home Reconfiguring citizenship through resistance: the Action Committee of Non-Status Algerians The Canadian refugee determination policy and gendered discourses of victimhood and agency Race and the organization of professional engineering in Ontario	Beth Humphries Jean McDonald Hijin Park Bonnie Slade
B5	Conceptualizing Race in Post 9/11 The return of the barbarians: Race and racism in a post-modern and post 9/11 world Racism in the masquerade of nationalism: Wars, Japanese-Americans and Arab-Americans The Role of African Parliaments in addressing racism	Malreddy Pavan Kumar Ezra Lee Hon. Alisemera Jane Babiha
B6	Race and Space From colonialism to multiculturalism: Tourist sites and the shifting places of aboriginality in Canada The frontier of respectability of respectability: Toronto lofts, white middle-class identity and empty spaces From raced to erased: Urbanizing race in Toronto 2004 Cultural Sites of Purification: Re-creational Space and the Construction of Uber-Citizens of/for the Liberal-Nation State	Renisa Mawani Zoë Newman Mark V. Campbell Caroline Fusco

Friday, April 30th 3:15 p.m.

Panel	Title and Papers	Speakers
C1	Racialized Undergraduate Students: The lack of Role Models and Mentors (5 students and Merle Jacobs)
C2	Security, State, Racism and Alterity (Francophone Panel) The notion of "irrationality" in the representations of Arabs and Muslims Les Canadiens d'origine arabe: une altérité problématique/ Arab-Canadians: A Problematic Alterity Canadian National Security: New Forms of Racialization Le traitement de l'islam par les médias québécois/ Islam in Quebec Francophone media 1998-2002 Sécurité, Culture et Neo-racisme/ Security, Culture and Neo-racism	Ratiba Hadj-Moussa Rachad Antonius Naima Bendriss Karine Côté Boucher Denise Helly Micheline Labelle
C3	Racializing Work The discursive practice of racialization: Examples from the garment industry Social organization of settlement services in Toronto – from the standpoint of skilled Chinese immigrant women The self-made being made: Race, gender and knowledge production in self employment	Khaleda Siddiqui and Srabani Maitra Hongxia Shan Melanie Knight
C4	The Global and the Local Webs of resistance in Transnational call centres Bringing the war home: Anti-globalization activists search for the local Institutionalized racism in Canada's Filipino community Welfare policy and practice for children separated from their families	Kiran Mirchandani Andrew K. Thompson Emmanuel Sayo Helen Charnley and Umme Imam
C5	Race Online Dollz and Destiny: (Re) constructions of race in cyberspace Racialization of/by Technology Virtual hegemony race in online space	Gena Chang-Campbell Gita Hashemi Jasjit Sangha
C6	Researching Race Globally and Locally Antiracism in the Cosmopolis The dialectics of anti-Black racism The perception of racism by Ethiopian migrants	Gordon Pon Akua Benjamin Abye Tasse
C7	Beyond the War Mentality: Feminism of Colour Redefine Security (Workshop) Creating a Feminist Framework for Maximum Security: Gender, Race, Class, Nation Unlocking the Transnational Prison-Military Industrial Complex: Black Feminist Reflections on Freedom Criminalizing Dissent: Secret Trials, Racial Profiling and the Enemy Within Imperial Longings, Multicultural Belongings	Margo Okazaw-Rey Julia Sudbury Amina Sherazee Sunera Thobani

Saturday, May 1, 10:15 a.m.

Panel	Title and Papers	Speakers
D1	Struggling against racism – making space for Latino/a bodies in the nation Migrant Latina exotic dancers and the complicity of the Canadian state Making space: RE-Constructing latinoamericanidad in Toronto From J Lo to Jennifer or the edible woman’s unforgivable transgressions	Gloria Patricia Diaz Barrero Vannina Sztainbok Lorena M. Gajardo & R. Magaly San Martin
D2	Racism, Nationalism and Citizenship Contested identities: Identification surveillance and citizenship Building soldier citizens: Exploring the racialized labour geographies and targeted social citizenship of war work in Canada Political Economy, Religious Nationalism, and Globalization: An Ideology Critique White Turkishness: Culturalization of class and race in post Cold War Middle East	Simone Browne Deborah Cowen Sohrab Shiravand Sedef Arat-Koc
D3	Globalization and Imperialism Race, resistance and global apartheid: A comparative study of social movements in South Africa and the U.S. Race, empire and destruction: The case of Zimbabwe Double Talk, racism and international sanctions regimes We opened up a vein for them: Racial scripts of 21 st century Canadian mineral explorers in African nations	Amanda Alexander & Andile Mngxitama Douglas Thomson Mustafa Koc Paula Butler
D4	War Against Terrorism: The Racial Subtext Postcolonial Warriors: native informants and the new empire The role of the intellectuals and the academy, post 9/11 in the reproduction of racialized knowledge War against terrorism: The racial subtext	Shiraz Dossa Anila Zainub Yasmin Jiwani
D5	Reading Bodies in Cultural Terms The uses of Imperialist nostalgia and cultural discourse for re-colonization: A Canadian example Terror through terrorism in Canadian immigrant Muslim women’s lives A Re-articulation of Black Feminist Thought Canadian public space, racialized minorities and the media: Deconstructing the coverage of Dr. Sunera Thobani’s Oct. 2001 speech	Carol Schick and Verna St.Denis Tabassum Ruby Notisha Massaquoi Sarah Hornstien

Saturday, May 1, 2:30 p.m.

Panel	Title and Papers	Speakers
E1	Transnational Feminism as Critical Practice The Limits of Transnationalism: Writing Muslim Women and non-Arab Muslim Women Producing third world immigrant women as activists in the immigrant Services Shifting contexts, shaping experiences: Child abuse survivorships Feminist projects, imperial locations: North American midwifery and the commodification of third world mothers.	Amina Jamal Jane Ku Marie Lovrod Sheryl Nestel
E2	Race, Gender and Nation: Deconstructing North America through the War on Terrorism Critical global ethnography: Pedagogies of race and empire Tomato, tomato: American imperialism and Canadian colonialism Racialized images of women in the “War on Terrorism”	Sara Dorow Kristin Lozanski Irene Shankar
E3	The Gain and Loss when Races Intersect and Interact Reflections on interracial Relationship as a site for life-long citizenship learning and social change Pure vs impure: Reflections on my “mixed” self, my “mixed” relationship and my parents’ “mixed” marriage Transcending race: The Black Woman and the White Man - What Black men think and what can we learn? The untold story of the relationship between First Nations and Africans in North America.	Kimine Mayuzumi and Riyad Shahjahan Shumona Ray Denise Clarke Erica Neegan
E4	Producing Racialized Knowledge in the Academy Cultural studies and the new academic order September Eleventh and the Unbearable White-But-Not-Quiteness of Being: A Spoken-Word Performance (Mostly) Re-articulation or Re-inscription? Whiteness in ostensibly anti-racist/critical spaces.	Richard Douglass-Chin Dave Hudson Philip Howard
E5	Racializing Religion The social impact of Islamophobia: Research from north-west England Intersections of race, gender and religion: Anti-racist feminism and a new critical paradigm for Islamic feminist praxis Theorizing on the role of religion in the clash of civilizations and past empires Politicizing Religious/Spiritual Forms of Resistance: An anti-racist response	Laura Panketh Jasmin Zine Emily Antoon Elaine A. Brown Spencer