

York University's School of Nursing Invites you to a

TALK and BOOK LAUNCH featuring:

Personal and Political: Stories from the Women's Health Movement 1960-2010

With Dr. Lorraine Greaves- Centre of Excellence in Women's Health

This book...

- Examines the role of feminism in transforming the healthcare system in Canada
- Analyses the "second wave" women's health movement in Canada between 1960 and 2010
- Describes how this feminist movement challenged diagnoses, treatments, regulations, policies, laws, and research

Event Details

FRIDAY NOV 16TH, 12:00

Victor Phillip Dahdaleh Building Room 1005

88 The Pond Rd, North York, ON M3J 2S5

Refreshments Provided. Books available.

* RSVP by 14 November to

owhchair@yorku.ca

Brought to you by: The School of Nursing, York University;
Women's Health Research Chair in Mental Health Office, York University
Centre for Feminist Research, York University
The Feminist History Society
Health and Society, LAPS
Health Policy & Management, Faculty of Health
Second Story Press

Second
Story
Press

YORK
UNIVERSITÉ
UNIVERSITY
redefine THE POSSIBLE.